

Entered at the postoffice at East Jordan Michigan, as second class mail matter.

CHADDOCK DISTRICT.

Spring is here; so is the caucuses. Mr. Thompson of East Jordan is now domiciled on the farm he bought of Chas. Sweet.

At the home of Joseph Carson they have an eight pound girl, arrived 1st Saturday.

Mrs. F. McCalmon was visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Webster, south of town part of last week.

M. Ruhling and J. E. Chew attended Masonic school of instruction at Boyne City Thursday of last week.

The school is closed up for one week's vacation and the teacher, Miss Stewart, will visit friends in Chandler township.

Miss Lavinia Anderson returned home from Boyne City Monday for a short visit.

Mose Lalonde, Jr., is building to his house a new veranda with a cement floor.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy the past month of school—Eileen Gunsolus, Rhoda Cliffe, Karl Heller and John H. Chew.

Notice to Taxpayers.

To the voters and taxpayers of South Arm Township:

Gentlemen:—Are you satisfied with what we accomplished with the small amount of money you entrusted to our care a year ago? If so we would respectfully ask that you vote us a little more at the township election on Monday April 5th, and we will try and do as well if not better this year. We have a few things under contemplation which if we can land will be of direct benefit to the farmer, but it requires money, therefore we ask your co-operation in the furthering and building up our township. We are one of the leading agricultural townships in the state, why not be THE leading township?

East Jordan and South Arm Board of Trade.

Ladies' Equity Notes.

Echo Local F. S. of E. met at the home of Frank Kidder on March 12, and was called to order by Pres. Frank Kidder. Opening songs were "America" and "Who Would Wed a Farmer." Roll call gave all officers present, nine members, several visitors and a good many ladies. Communications read were a letter and circular letter from State Secretary Emerson. A rising vote of appreciation of the circular letter was given. Much interest is manifested among the locals on the subject of conducting funerals by the members and showing our sympathy for members in trouble. Vote was given to aid members in time of bereavement. The subject of the ladies' society and their work brought out some good ideas. Address by Lenni Button, giving his views that the ladies should organize an auxiliary for the same purpose that other organizations have their ladies' societies. This was decidedly a lively meeting, and Equity is their theme. A motion was made to change the meeting night to Saturday. This carried as more young folks can attend. Next meeting will be with Wm. Hennings. The ladies served a fine supper. Convention coming: Plans are now being made by the ladies' locals for their next local convention which will meet with Mrs. James Howey on April 13. All members are expected to be present as these meetings are for the uplift and aid of the farm women and our society.

LOCAL OPTION

Yes, that is what, we, the ladies of Equity, stand for. And we trust that every signer will stand on his honor and vote as he signed: How small a man would feel afterward if he would vote different, thinking no one would know. But Oh! Voter! Stop! Think! That before the great Judge Eternal your vote will witness against you.

A clever 25 cent silvered "No-Drip" Coffee Strainer Coupon is now put in each 25c package of Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. Look for it! Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterward.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

CARPET CARPET

Empey Bros. have the largest stock of Carpets every shown in this city. Patterns are up-to-date. We have sold over two thousand yards of this carpet. People come and buy it the second time. What better recommendation do you want. Only 25c and 35c per yard.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites should always be kept in the house for the following reasons:

First—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

Second—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

Third—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

Fourth—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

No household should be without it.

D'Ennery's Will

The Empress Eugenie once asked D'Ennery, the French dramatist, after the performance of one of his plays at the Tuilleries, "How did your heroine get the poison that was so necessary for the denouement?" "Ah, your majesty," said D'Ennery, "that's just what I've never succeeded in getting her to tell."

Another time the directors of a theater where his drama, "The Two Orphans," was being rehearsed asked him what he was dissatisfied with. "Oh," he replied, "it's only that each of you has got an imbecile for a partner."

Wigwags and Snakes.

An American had been seated at a London dinner table next a rosy cheeked, gray eyed English girl who affected an absorbing and flattering interest in the United States, about which she seemed to have imbibed the usual extraordinary ideas of some Britons, especially with regard to the perils to be encountered in the more sparsely settled regions of the west. She tried her best not to be incredulous when assured that things were not really so bad as she imagined.

"It's reassuring to be told that there are not rattlesnakes in all the gardens," she said, with a dazzling smile, "but my cousin wrote me not long since that he had seen over twenty wigwags in one little village. Perhaps," she added as her companion made no immediate response, "perhaps the wigwags are not as venomous as rattlesnakes."

A Sarcotical Reflection.

A young clergyman on his first appearance in the pulpit made a faux pas in a sermon directed against the very human fault of vanity. "Many a good woman comes into God's house to show off (perhaps she doesn't quite realize it, but the fact is unchanged)—to show off her best clothes." Then he glanced across the crowded pews and added, "I am thankful, dear friends, to see that none of you has come here for so unworthy a reason."

When God Lets Loose a Thinker.

Beware when the great God lets loose a thinker on this planet. Then all things are at risk. It is as when a conflagration has broken out in a great city, and no man knows what is safe or where it will end. There is not a piece of science but its flank may be turned tomorrow. There is not any literary reputation, not the so called eternal names of fame, that may not be revised and condemned. The very hopes of man, the thoughts of his heart, the religion of nations, the manners and morals of mankind, are all at the mercy of a new generalization. Generalization is always a new influx of the divinity into the mind; hence the thrill that attends it.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Swallowed the Objection.

A cannibal chief became converted and asked the missionary to admit him to the church.

"But you have more than one wife," objected the missionary. "My church does not allow that."

The chief departed in dejection, but returned again in a few days and announced, with evident satisfaction, that he now had only one wife and was ready for baptism.

"But," objected the clergyman doubtfully, "where are your other wives?" "Oh," replied the convert, "I have eaten them!"

On the Safe Side.

The "colored lady" who entered service as cook gave her name as Julietta Price, but constantly referred to her husband as George Ledbetter. "How does it happen, Julietta," she was asked one day, "that you go by the name of Price, while your husband's name is Ledbetter?" "Well, you see, Mrs. Lawrence," she replied cheerfully, "it's this a-way. I hadn't been acquainted with George but for days when I married him, and I didn't know how I was gonter lak him nor how he was gonter lak me. Now, these divorcements betwix married folks is a heap or trouble an' a heap or expense, too, an' I loved the safest way for us to do was fer George to keep his maiden name an' to keep mine tell we see how our new experiment was gonter turn out."

His Authority.

Dr. Magrath was eccentric. One day he was called up to visit a sick man and as he entered the room said cheerfully, "How do you do?" "Oh, doctor," replied the patient plaintively, "I am dead." Magrath immediately wheeled about and left the room and actually reported that the man was dead. The mistake was discovered the following day, when some one took the doctor to task for issuing a false certificate. "I did it upon the very highest authority," Magrath explained, "for I had it from the man's own mouth."

Rheumatic Pains

"My mother is a great sufferer from rheumatism, and Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills is the only remedy that relieves her."

MRS. G. DAVENPORT, Roycefield, N. J.

The pains of rheumatism are almost invariably relieved with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They also overcome that nervous irritation which prevents sleep because they soothe the nerves. To chronic sufferers they are invaluable. When taken as directed, they relieve the distress and save the weakening influence of pain, which so frequently prostrates. Many sufferers use them whenever occasion requires with the greatest satisfaction, why not you? They do not derange the stomach nor create a habit. Why not try them? Get a package from your druggist. Take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.
